The president of the Jamaican Manufacturers Association, in a statement to the organization's members, has urged them to support the Government in its efforts to overcome the recession. The President, speaking at a meeting held last week in Kingston, said that the Government's Budget for 1979/80 was a realistic and sound one, and that it would do much to help overcome the current economic problems. He also emphasized the importance of private sector business activity.

Possible by 'the Courts...

There is no doubt that President Sadat is a leader. ..

There is no doubt that President Sadat is a leader. He would claim the unrivalled leadership of the world itself, the unrivalled leadership of his country. ..

The reaction of Syria and other members of the Organization of Arab Unity to Egypt's actions was that of a peaceful and a thermonuclear revolution; and the Prime Minister has been a leader of the world, a leader of the world. ..

According to the official text of the Camp David agreement, the settlement will be established in the Sinai Peninsula. The agreement provides for the withdrawal of Israeli forces from the Sinai Peninsula, the return of the Sinai Peninsula to Egypt, and the establishment of a safe and secure zone in the Sinai Peninsula.

The agreement also provides for the return of the Golan Heights to Syria and the return of the West Bank and East Jerusalem to Jordan. The agreement also provides for the establishment of an international peacekeeping force to monitor the implementation of the Camp David agreement.

The Camp David agreement was signed between Israel and Egypt on September 17, 1979, and was mediated by the United States. The agreement was signed by President Jimmy Carter of the United States, Prime Minister Menachem Begin of Israel, and President Anwar Sadat of Egypt.

The agreement was widely praised as a significant step toward peace in the Middle East. It was seen as a major achievement for President Carter, who had been working for a peace agreement between Israel and Egypt for several years.

The agreement was also seen as a major victory for President Begin, who had been seeking an end to the Israeli occupation of the Sinai Peninsula. The agreement also provided for the return of the Golan Heights to Syria and the return of the West Bank and East Jerusalem to Jordan.

The agreement was signed by President Jimmy Carter of the United States, Prime Minister Menachem Begin of Israel, and President Anwar Sadat of Egypt.

The agreement was widely praised as a significant step toward peace in the Middle East. It was seen as a major achievement for President Carter, who had been working for a peace agreement between Israel and Egypt for several years.